

Job Title: Bar Supervisor
Salary: £22,000 - £24,000 per annum
Location: Llangollen, Wales.
Type of Company: Exclusive Wedding Venue in North Wales

Working within a friendly and professional team, this is a key role within the organisation offering job satisfaction and progression within a highly reputable and bespoke venue.

We are now seeking an experienced and confident Bar Supervisor who enjoys delivering a first-class service to both guests and team members alike. You will have a professional and outgoing personality and the will to succeed in a demanding and highly rewarding role.

The Role:

- To take overall responsibility for the successful management of bar and beverage services
- Working with management staff to ensure planning and delivery of a first class service to guests
- Training and development of all bar staff on site
- Cellar Management
- Supervision and management of all bar staff to include regular staff meetings
- Maintaining inventory and managing regular stock takes
- Mixology experience preferred
- Ordering and delivery of beverages on site within timescales and to budgets
- Maximising profit margins by maintaining drink measurement and regular audits
- Keeping up to date with beverage, cocktail and wine trends
- Driving sales and customer satisfaction
- To undertake Duty Management shifts, supervising the day to day smooth running of the Hall, delegating duties, helping to implement new procedures and duties, handling cash and end of day checks. Opening and locking up.
- Motivating the team

The Person:

- Minimum 2-year experience of bar management or supervision
- Previous experience gained within a similar establishment
- Previous experience of targets and budgets is desirable
- Knowledge of health and safety, Hygiene and licencing laws
- A friendly, outgoing and professional disposition with strong customer service skills
- A flexible approach to working hours and the ability to work with and motivate a team
- The ability to develop a team and offer training and support
- Good organisational skills with a confident, approachable and professional attitude when dealing with our guests.

A flexible approach to working hours is of course essential within the hospitality industry. You can expect to work a 45-hour week on a rota basis of 5 days out of 7 including weekends, we endeavour to give our team one weekend off per month with some odd weekend days too! With the added bonus of Christmas and new year off!!

To apply for this role, please submit a covering letter and CV to contact@tyndwrhall.co.uk